
Community Health Representative Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a Community Health Representative position with reputable organization in which my experience can be a positive influence on the growth of company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Proficient understanding of medical terminology
 - Ability to conduct patient interviews to obtain required information
 - Ability to remain calm in emergencies and other stressful situations
 - Ability to report changes in clients physical and emotional condition
 - Ability to enter data, identify errors and missing information
 - Outstanding organizational and analytical skills
 - Sound physical and mental health along with a good grasp of first aid and CPR
-

Professional Experience:

Community Health Representative
Pit River Health Service, Tampa FL
November 2006 – Present

- Acted as intermediary between medical staff, health facilities and social services.
- Extended suggested services as per medical diagnosis and even assisted patients to use all recommended services.
- Conducted health related visits to homes of tribal members and reported issues to authorities.
- Delivered required medication to patient residences and managed patient records.
- Aided to improve health of pre and post-natal patients, infants and children as well as formulated written reports.
- Educated individuals on health and participated in planned meetings.
- Extended health information via special projects and aided with emergencies.

Community Health Representative
Gentiva Health Services, Tampa FL
February 2001 – October 2006

- Imparted health education and even interviewed clients and gathered information to complete health histories.
 - Carried out vital lab work and screenings.
 - Reviewed client vital signs.
 - Acted as an intermediary between client and community services.
 - Conducted events on health related issues and even helped in transportation when required.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree In Health
Fort Lewis College, Durango, CO

Build your Resume Now