
Construction Lawyer Resume

Job Objective

Construction Lawyer with great negotiating, communication, and analyzing skills seeking employment in your firm.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in handling the legal cases of construction
 - Deep knowledge of complex construction claims
 - Immense knowledge of pros and cons of construction legal fields
 - Good understanding of fast growing and changing field of real estate laws.
 - Familiarity with labor laws, property laws, real estate laws and environmental laws
 - Proficient with construction management and disaster management procedures
 - Immense ability to prepare court documents
 - Outstanding ability to perform legal researches to collect evidence
 - Remarkable ability to file pleadings in court
-

Professional Experience:

Construction Lawyer
Thompson & Slagle, LLC, Huntington, WV
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Provided legal guidance to construction issues such as construction disputes, construction defects and land acquisitions.
 - Represented clients in the court of law.
 - Reviewed floor plans, legal contracts, blueprints and inspection reports.
 - Analyzed construction legal cases and determined liabilities for insurance companies.
 - Handled cases related to death and injuries that occurred on the construction sites.
 - Provided legal support for construction project activities.
 - Mentored junior construction lawyers on their assigned cases.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Civil Law
Marymount Manhattan College, New York, NY
Bachelor's Degree in Law
Tulane University, New Orleans, LA

Build your Resume Now