
Construction Safety Manager Resume

Job Objective

Actively seeking Construction Safety Manager Position where I can contribute the experience I have in this field to the success of company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Experience to maintain safety at all construction sites
 - Thorough knowledge of OSHA construction standards
 - Immense knowledge of power system operations
 - Ability to inspect various facilities
 - Ability to design effective construction programs
 - Excellent communication skills in both oral and written forms
 - Ability to resolve all issues in programs
 - Proficient in interpreting technical data
-

Professional Experience:

Construction Safety Manager
Kiewit Corporation, South Burlington, VT
October 2008 – Present

- Monitored and identified hazards within facility.
- Designed various health and safety procedures for site.
- Ensured compliance to all government and insurance regulations.
- Prepared inspection schedule according to policies.
- Oversee maintenance data sheets according to regulations.
- Developed training sessions for all emergency situations.
- Maintained record of all hazardous waste.
- Participated in seminars to maintain knowledge of regulations.

Construction Safety Coordinator
Parsons Corporation, South Burlington, VT
August 2003 – September 2008

- Coordinated with members and internal groups for programs.
- Prepared educational materials for all employees.
- Evaluated various functional management education programs.
- Analyzed construction methods and practices.
- Performed safety root cause evaluations for transmission group.
- Provided support for all capital construction projects.

Construction Safety Officer
Sauer Inc., South Burlington, VT
May 1998 – July 2003

- Developed efficient strategies to identify hazards at site.
 - Prepared and evaluated reports for all property damage.
 - Designed required policies and codes for all safety activities.
 - Performed regular inspection on site to prevent accidents.
 - Organized and conducted training classes for personnel.
 - Participated in construction evaluation processes for activities.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Construction Management
Clarendon College, Clarendon, TX

Build your Resume Now