
Control Operator Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a Control Operator position in a reputable company that permits me to utilize my education and training.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Proficient in operating Broadcast equipment
 - Excellent knowledge of video and audio signals
 - Good working knowledge of computers and software systems
 - Outstanding ability to read and understand technical operations manuals
 - Remarkable ability to manage multiple events simultaneously
 - Ability to work within the team concept
 - Ability to analyze, adjust, and perform minor repairs on equipment
 - Ability to complete task hazard awareness and mitigation
-

Work Experience:

Control Operator, May 2004 – Present
Ascent Media Network Services, Antioch, CA

- Operated facility Broadcast and Transmission equipment and systems.
- Monitored of on-air networks and signals.
- Operated and monitored mainframe and mid-range computer.
- Resolved error lights and messages, and faulty output.
- Made procedural and operational corrections.
- Resolved console control panel errors.
- Provided recommendations on company technology purchases.

Control Operator, March 2002– April 2004
Fox Entertainment Group, Antioch, CA

- Monitored, controlled and directed the safe, stable and reliable operation of substation and transmission facilities in the company's electrical power system while complying with the standards, procedures, and guidelines.
 - Ensured proper maintenance of records for regulatory requirements.
 - Recommended suggestions to improve regional system reliability.
 - Coordinated and analyzed transmission facility outage requests.
 - Controlled and directed outage restoration efforts.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Electronic & communications engineering, Lenoir-Rhyne University, North Carolina, NC

Build your Resume Now