
Coroner Investigator Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a Coroner Investigator position with company seeking dedicated and hard working employee.

Work Experience:

Coroner Investigator, August 2005 – Present
Alameda County, Seattle, WA

- Conferred with police officers regarding conditions noted at scene of death.
- Removed dead bodies from the scenes of death.
- Notified next of kin, Health Department and other interested parties as necessary.
- Released bodies to funeral directors properly authorized by heirs and administrators.
- Developed records for burial of the indigent and unclaimed dead and assisted at such dispositions.
- Assisted pathologist in autopsies, made incisions and sutures and maintained neatness and sanitation of the morgue.

Coroner Investigator, May 2000 – July 2005
Clark County, Seattle, WA

- Responded to the scene of death, secured and assisted in securing the scene of death and protecting evidence.
 - Interviewed individuals at the scene to gather relevant information.
 - Reported any unusual and suspicious circumstances to the appropriate law enforcement agency.
 - Documented, impounded, examined and identified all medications and drugs prior to proper disposition within a controlled manner.
 - Provided support and explanations of procedures and findings to family members and others.
 - Collected, documented and maintained the chain of evidence and maintained accurate records and files.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Huge experience in medico legal death investigations
 - In-depth knowledge of standard techniques for gathering and preserving physical evidence
 - Extensive knowledge of basic medical terminology and human anatomy
 - Ability to exercise good judgment in studying evidence and drawing conclusions
 - Ability to obtain and summarize pertinent information from police and medical reports
 - Ability to compile clear and comprehensive Coroner's reports using correct English, grammar and spelling
 - Ability to maintain effective relations with law enforcement agencies
-

Education:

High School Diploma, Cedarville High School, Cedarville, AR

Build your Resume Now