
Counseling Psychologist Resume

Job Objective

To secure a Counseling Psychologist within your organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Strong experience in providing counseling psychological services
 - Exceptional knowledge of psychotherapeutic and psycho diagnostic techniques
 - Huge knowledge of preventive mental health outreach programs
 - Familiarity with various community organizations
 - Ability to provide individual, couple and family counseling procedures
 - Ability to conduct psycho-educational workshops
 - Ability to identify, analyze, and devise solutions
 - Ability to provide trainings for interns.
-

Professional Experience:

Counseling Psychologist

Southern Illinois University Carbondale, Burlington, MA

August 2007 – Present

- Developed treatment plans based on patient's psychological problems.
- Evaluated patient's mental health through interviews, observations, and case histories.
- Provided therapies as per patient's needs and interests.
- Modified therapy plan based on patient's progress.
- Worked with other medical staffs to coordinate patient care services.
- Explained patients and families about treatment procedures.
- Referred patients to other medical specialists if needed.
- Provided counseling services at schools, social service agencies, clinics, colleges, rehabilitation centers and businesses.

Counseling Psychologist

University of Illinois at Chicago, Burlington, MA

May 2004 – July 2007

- Conducted psychological tests and prepared test reports.
 - Analyzed test results to identify patient's problems and diagnoses.
 - Reviewed and recommended improvements to counseling techniques.
 - Helped patients to achieve their social, personal and educational adjustments.
 - Provided both individual and group counseling services.
 - Provided support for psychological research programs.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Counseling Psychology

Silver Lake College, Manitowoc, WI Bachelor's Degree in Psychology

Citrus College, Glendora, CA

Build your Resume Now