
Dairy Feed Nutritionist Resume

Job Objective

To obtain the position of Dairy Feed Nutritionist where I can enhance my skills and contribute to the growth and development of the organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Substantial experience of dairy feed product formulation, labeling and sales
 - In-depth knowledge of feed formulation programs, feed nutrition principles and dairy industry practices
 - Operational knowledge of Microsoft Office and Brill feed-formulation software
 - Familiarity with Safe Animal Feed Education program and HACCP compliance
 - Ability to work in collaboration with company's consulting nutritionists, positively
 - Ability to meet all sales targets, as assigned by dairy company, successfully
-

Professional Experience:

Dairy Feed Nutritionist
Continental Search and Outplacement, INC., Seattle, WA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Assisted with dairy feed formulation and maintenance of formulation authenticity.
 - Updated and maintained ingredient specifications, without errors, as required.
 - Contacted and worked with suppliers of micro ingredients, in an effective manner.
 - Managed and responded to various aspects of feed pricing, for different clients.
 - Assisted with generation of correct tags and proper labeling of dairy feed items.
 - Handled and resolved inventory issues related to dairy feed ingredients.
 - Participated in resolution of internal and external Quality Control issues.
 - Worked with other nutritionists, in a collaborative and productive manner.
 - Executed all assigned tasks in compliance with government regulations, as applicable.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Dairy Science
Allen University, Columbia, SC

Build your Resume Now