

---

DATA INTEGRATION MANAGER RESUME

---

Summary:

---

An experienced and dynamic person with proven years of experience in handling technical equipment; has knowledge in design, development, and deployment of complex data architectures; highly aggressive and confident, focused and spontaneous, assertive, self-driven and results-oriented; can effectively initiate opportunities and link them to appropriate services offered; has strong written and verbal communication skills and possesses good interpersonal relations necessary in servicing major accounts; with extensive knowledge in information technology.

---

Professional Experience:

---

Senior Data Integration Developer, October 2007– Present
Agilent Telecommunications, Eden Prairie, Minnesota

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Worked with carrier, enterprise and IT group to understand and help prioritize data and information requirements.
- Analyzed work flows and systems and made recommendations for implementing upgrade.
- Enforced leadership in working with business subject matter experts, developers, and quality assurance staff to ensure that deliverables are met on a prescribed time.
- Enhanced technical skills to be able to improve development and implementation of solutions while following defined best practices.
- Communicated with team members and mentored other members of the IT team.

Data Integration Developer, March 2001- September 2007
Affiliated Computer Services Inc., Dallas, TX, USA

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Conceptualized designs and code reviews.
- Supported component and data architecture design.
- Conducted performance monitoring, product evaluation and profitability analysis.
- Performed budgeting, forecasting, financial modeling, and reporting an essential part of the processes.
- Facilitated technical walk through to a team of technical engineers.
- Developed scripts to automate administration and management of the environment.
- Analyzed work flow and systems to make appropriate recommendations in implementing changes.

Data Integration Developer, November 1996 – February 2001
Fashion Emporium, Beachwood Ohio

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Worked with carrier, enterprise and IT group to understand and help prioritize data and information requirements.
- Analyzed work flows and systems and made recommendations for implementing upgrade.
- Enforced leadership in working with business subject matter experts, developers, and quality assurance staff to ensure that deliverables are met on a prescribed time.
- Enhanced technical skills to be able to improve development and implementation of solutions while following defined best practices.
- Communicated with team members and mentored other members of the IT team.

Data Integration Developer, March 2001- September 2007
Affiliated Computer Services Inc., Dallas, TX, USA

---

Education:

---

1993-1995 Master Degree in Computer Science
Rice University, TX
1989-1993 Bachelor Degree in Computer Science
Rice University, TX

---

Skills:

---

- Design, development and IT implementation experience
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Proven ability to appropriately identify, take ownership, and focus on highest priority tasks.

- Decisive leadership and issue management skills
- Excellent understanding of electrical and mechanical systems
- Proven crisis management expertise

---

Awards and Honors:

---

Dean's Lister, Rice University, Batch 1991
Data Management International, Member

Build your Resume Now