
Database Architect Resume

Job Objective

In search of employment as a Database Architect.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Strong experience in designing Relational and NoSQL databases
 - Wide knowledge of data clustering and replication techniques
 - Working knowledge of SQL, CouchDB, MongoDB and Cassandra
 - Familiarity with data merging and source control systems
 - Proficient with project planning and estimating procedures
 - Skilled at using Microsoft SQL Server 2005/2008r2 and HBase/Hadoop
 - Ability to work with technical team to develop architecture solutions
 - Ability to adhere to data security and confidentiality protocols
 - Ability to troubleshoot architectural problems
 - Excellent project planning and estimating skills
-

Professional Experience:

Database Architect

Xora, Inc., Charlestown, MA

August 2007 – Present

- Designed and developed databases to support business systems.
- Defined data tables, indexes, and interfaces for database applications.
- Developed logical and physical data models.
- Developed and enforced database design standards.
- Evaluated technical functionality of database applications.
- Worked well with System Architects and Design Analysts.
- Defined load-balancing processes to reduce down time for back-up processes.
- Maintained complete documentations for database architecting activities.

Database Architect

CSC, Charlestown, MA

May 2004 – July 2007

- Provided technical expertise to database design and development activities.
 - Maintained and enhanced database management systems (DBMS).
 - Provided proper resolutions to database integration issues.
 - Provided guidance to less experienced architects.
 - Prepared status reports on database development activities to management.
 - Coordinated with management in developing project scope, priorities and schedules.
 - Provided support in development of project proposals.
 - Identified technical criticality and provided corrective actions.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Computer Science

St. John's College, Santa Fe, NM

Bachelor's Degree in Information Systems
Clayton College & State University, Morrow, GA

Build your Resume Now