
Database Developer Resume

Job Objective

To seek employment as a Database Developer.

Work Experience:

Database Developer, July 2006 – Present
Hallmark, Inc., Kenner, LA

- Communicated with the business analyst and client representatives to develop technical specifications that met documented business requirements.
- Designed and implemented data mobilization job streams that incorporated data hygiene, merge and data transformation processes.
- Implemented business intelligence and marketing automation solutions.
- Facilitated support and documented all ongoing operational responsibilities.
- Participated in code review and acceptance process in order to enhance methodology and delivery.

Database Developer, May 2002 – June 2006
Vynile Corporation, Kenner, LA

- Provided support to Operations and Sustained as a Tier-3 support engineer.
 - Developed and maintained scripts and programs for data exchanges and interfaced with external systems.
 - Designed advanced SQL queries, stored procedures, triggers, scripts and cursors.
 - Imported data into CRM using existing and new integration programs.
 - Tested for quality assurance and documented code and procedures.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Profound knowledge of relational data modeling and data warehousing
 - In-depth knowledge of database development methodologies, design and implementation
 - Thorough knowledge of Oracle, SQL Server, relational and multi-dimensional database design and management
 - Proficient with Microsoft SQL Server, Oracle and other major RDBMS
 - Excellent problem solving skills
 - Good communication and listening skills
 - Strong planning, organizational, and documentation skills
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer engineering, Jones International University, Colorado, CO

Build your Resume Now