

---

DATABASE TESTER RESUME

---

Objective:

To work as a Database Tester where I can grow and expand in this field while becoming a valued member of the team.

---

Summary of Skills:

- Hands-on experience in database testing
  - Expertise in working on Unix platforms (Linux, Solaris, AIX, HP)
  - Skilled in White box testing and performance tuning in a high volume data processing
  - Proficient with VB Script; C/C++; Java; Python; Basic Script; Java Script. HTML, XML, JavaScript, Java and SOAP
  - Familiarity with SAP Oracle, Sybase, Oracle, MYSQL, SQL queries, Documentum, DB2 and Postgre DB
  - Ability to perform Perl and shell scripting
  - Ability to analyze output generated from automated tests
  - Ability to translate highly technical data from various sources into easy to read reports
-

Professional Experience:

Database Tester, August 2005 – Present
Commvault Systems, Seguin, TX

- Developed various database configuration and database protection techniques.
- Tested database accurately whenever required.
- Designed and implemented test cases for database protection and recovery.
- Managed all testing processes and tracked progress of every test.
- Identified bugs in database and created reports for modification requests and resolved all issues.

Database Tester, May 2000 – July 2005
Northrop Grumman, Seguin, TX

- Developed and updated databases and managed database with help of various query languages.
  - Performed tests on back up databases and recovery.
  - Designed and maintained all test automation tools and analyzed test results that were obtained.
  - Identified all bugs present in database and coordinated with software developers and resolved all issues.
  - Documented and implemented all test cases and plans on various data warehouse programs.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science, Wayne State College, Wayne, NE

Master's Degree in Computer Science, North Georgia College & State University, Dahlonega, GA

Build your Resume Now