
Disability Examiner Resume

Job Objective

Experienced Disability Examiner seeking position with well-established business where my skills, training and experience can be of value.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Thorough knowledge of physical and mental disabilities
 - Deep knowledge of the principles of case history analysis
 - In-depth knowledge of vocational, educational, and rehabilitation programs
 - Ability to analyze and evaluate medical data
 - Ability to evaluate the impact of physical and mental impairments
 - Strong analytical skills and considerable expertise
-

Professional Experience:

Disability Examiner, August 2005 – Present
Dept of Social & Rehab Svcs, Athens, OH

- Analyzed medical records and other proof of a disability to make a determination of whether or not the claimant actually fits the description of being disabled.
- Utilized the claimant's medical records and other evidence of work history and disability status to make these determinations.

Disability Examiner, May 2000 – July 2005
Matrix Absence Management, Athens, OH

- Determined if additional medical data is needed and made arrangements for special examinations by medical specialists.
 - Supervised and trained agency staff on better ways to develop and maintain social case histories, case summaries, case records and correspondence.
 - Developed written determination summarizing findings and provided rationale for eligibility decisions.
 - Contacted physicians, hospitals work establishments, claimants and other sources by telephone to collect necessary data as needed.
 - Provided expert testimony and representation in hearings and appeals.
 - Performed field visits to collect supplemental information.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Physical Therapy, Pasadena City College, Pasadena, CA

Build your Resume Now