
Documentum Developer Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a challenging and rewarding position as a Documentum Developer.

Work Experience:

Documentum Developer, July 2006 – Present
Box, Inc., Cincinnati, OH

- Recognized as a company expert on Documentum and Web Development.
- Determined template enhancements and resolved resolution of programmatic problems.
- Supervised other sites and projects with regard to development requirements.
- Defined new program integration efforts and plans.
- Consulted multiple projects on integration strategies and defect investigation.
- Provided Documentum development support.

Documentum Developer, May 2002 – June 2006
Mirror Corporation, Cincinnati, OH

- Performed coding of medium to high complexity, unit testing of core system functionality and corrected defects during various phases of testing.
 - Installed, customized and integrated commercial software packages.
 - Developed accurate estimates and prepared project and component work packages based on specifications.
 - Identified common and reusable components and designed object architecture, and build object classes
 - Enhanced system performance and impact availability and resolved complex technical design issues.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Profound knowledge of software development and content management system implementation and SOA
 - In-depth knowledge of installation, debugging and support of Documentum based applications software
 - Thorough knowledge of Documentum technologies including DAM, WDK, DFC, DFS, Java, and SOA
 - Proficient with Documentum Installer, DA, and WebTop release 5.3 and DQL
 - Strong written and oral communication skills
 - Ability to estimate the duration of installation and development tasks
 - Exceptional ability to effectively design and deploy code in a proper manner
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Information Technology, William Howard Taft University, California, CA

Build your Resume Now