
Drama Teacher Resume

Job Objective

To allow the usage of years of skills that I bring as a Drama Teacher and to help increase the positive track record of the school.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience working as a drama teacher
 - Thorough knowledge of work ethics, sense of humor, and 'roll-up-my-sleeves' attitude
 - Outstanding ability to train up diversified students with varied backgrounds
 - Immense ability to be flexible in assignments and work hours
 - Good written and oral communication skills
 - Strong instructional and classroom management skills
-

Work Experience:

Drama Teacher, August 2005 – Present
Omaha Public School, Atlanta, GA

- Assumed responsibility for every single student's success.
- Created unit plans, lesson plans, and all required instructional materials.
- Produced short plays for performance in the classroom.
- Coordinated stage production, including sets, props and costumes.
- Managed productions, including tech, lighting, sound and backstage management.
- Ensured to monitor and lead after-school rehearsals.

Drama Teacher, May 2000 – July 2005
Encore High School, Atlanta, GA

- Instructed and trained performers in camera, stage and vocal techniques.
 - Performed interpretation of roles in dramatic productions.
 - Ensured to select suitable training methods based on the competence of performers.
 - Conducted readings and reviews to evaluate performers' abilities.
 - Advised performers on basic wardrobe, grooming and manner.
 - Tutored correct methods and techniques for auditions for plays and productions.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree In Theatern, Chestnut Hill College, Philadelphia, PA

Build your Resume Now