
Drupal Developer Resume

Job Objective

To secure a challenging and rewarding position as Drupal Developer with an established organization that can utilize my skills and experience.

Work Experience:

Drupal Developer, July 2006 – Present
Yellow, Inc., Macon, GA

- Organized new sites within content sharing architecture.
- Scripted database search-and-replaces within existing databased content.
- Developed new content types and imported existing databased content into them.
- Created and developed new site capabilities and features.
- Generated new Views using both interface and coded queries.
- Maintained content sharing architecture, database configuration and sites through efficient patching and debugging.

Drupal Developer, May 2002 – June 2006
Harvest Corporation, Macon, GA

- Developed Drupal web applications by utilizing agile and scrum methodologies.
 - Stayed current on new and emerging technologies and the potential application on client engagements.
 - Recognized opportunities for enhancement and made constructive suggestions for change.
 - Developed and maintained enterprise class websites and applications based on PHP and Drupal.
 - Collaborated with the lead web developer to support and expand existing Drupal architecture.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Profound knowledge of high-level development on the Drupal platform
 - Operational knowledge of languages such as C++, C#, Java and J2EE
 - Proficient in web development using Drupal, PHP, jQuery and Ajax
 - Excellent ability to implement end-to-end custom Drupal sites
 - In-depth knowledge of Drupal security patches, Drupal framework, prior versions and upcoming upgrades
 - Familiarity with versioning management systems (SVN and source control and deployment methodology)
 - Ability to perform in a fast-paced agile environment
 - Ability to work as both a team member and independently
 - Strong analytical and problem-solving skills
 - Ability to manage and deliver on multiple concurrent project tasks
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science , The Juilliard School, New York, NY

Build your Resume Now