

---

Dynamic Positioning Operator Resume

---

Job Objective

To obtain a Dynamic Positioning Operator position that will allow me to utilize my skills and has potential for growth.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Hands-on experience as a Dynamic Positioning Operator
  - Profound knowledge of industrial marine environment
  - Proficient with Cegelec and Natronics DP systems
  - In-depth understanding of all technical calculations
  - Skilled in computer sufficient to operate and maintain dynamic positioning control
  - Immense ability to coordinate rig position with departments to ensure desired position is maintained
-

Work Experience:

---

Dynamic Positioning Operator, May 2004 – Present
Diamond Offshore Drilling, Inc, Catonsville, MD

- Operated DP system and adjusted riser pipeline angle.
- Verified that Dynamic Positioning (DP) instruments are calibrated in accordance with the calibration instructions.
- Installed set stricture for the DP system and ensured accuracy of system data.
- Maintained DP equipment and ensured proper functioning of the system.
- Assisted in processing ballast control system.
- Maintained the rig in a stable condition and at the correct draft and trim.

Dynamic Positioning Operator, March 2002– April 2004
Noble Drilling Services Inc., Catonsville, MD

- Monitored the functioning of Dynamic Positioning System.
  - Operated DP controls and maintained desired unit location.
  - Ensured testing and reparation of DP system between well locations.
  - Maintained, resolved and performed routine repairs to the DP system and electronic equipment.
  - Prepared and initiate maintenance requirements for the DP system.
  - Ensured availability of spare parts to repair DP system.
-

Education:

---

Associate in Applied Science in Heavy Equipment Service, Cardinal Stritch University, Wisconsin, WI

Build your Resume Now