

---

Eating Disorder Dietitian Resume

---

Job Objective

Seeking a position as Eating Disorder Dietitian in highly reputed and professional organization.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Extensive experience of implementation, monitoring and evaluation of diet care programs for eating disorder clients
  - In-depth knowledge of various eating disorders and customer service practices
  - Remarkable knowledge of all applicable government and organization's regulations
  - Familiarity with evidence based care and therapy procedures
  - Ability to comply with nutrition care standards and established work procedures
  - Ability to counsel and interact with clients and their families, in a positive manner
-

Professional Experience:

Eating Disorder Dietitian
Cincinnati Children's Hospital – Cincinnati, OH
August 2012 – Present

---

Responsibilities:

- Created, executed, and managed personalized treatments for all patients.
  - Monitored, evaluated, and modified patient-specific plan of care, as required.
  - Educated and counseled patients and caregivers on appropriate treatment options.
  - Assessed mental health of patients and took relevant actions, accordingly.
  - Liaised and discussed with multidisciplinary team regarding treatment plans.
  - Interpreted and adhered to organization's work ethics and SOPs.
  - Counseled and guided all assigned medical team members, as required.
  - Developed and maintained strong professional relationships with external clinical networks.
  - Communicated dietary recommendations and delivered evidence based care and therapy, efficiently.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Human Nutrition
Northwood University, Cedar Hill, TX

---

Build your Resume Now