

---

ECONOMIST RESUME

---

Summary:

---

An economist and a financial expert who has the proven specialty in the methods and procedures for collecting and processing data; has a strong background in planning, designing and research necessary in the conceptualization of economic planning ventures and interpretation of documentations at hand as well as existing conditions; has familiarized self in the review and analysis of economic data and link the economic outcome relating to distribution of goods and services, supply and demand and specific demographics within a geographical area; has a broad knowledge of economic changes and developments both locally and internationally.

---

Professional Experience:

---

International Economist January 2003 – Present
World Bank, Washington, DC

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Participated in intra- and inter-agency talks and negotiations with trade groups.
- Provided in-depth analysis for international negotiations to serve as reference for decisions.
- Analyzed and evaluated international trade agreements and trade legislations.
- Conducted internal and external forums for information dissemination.
- Collated reports and documentations to support research analysis.

Agricultural Economist December 1993 – August 1992
Management Sciences for Health, Cambridge, MA

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Analyzed links between environment and sustainability attributes of resource supplies.
- Assessed logistics of harvesting, handling and transportation of bio-energy feedstock supplies.
- Assessed and forecasted existing feeds and livestock resources.
- Documented reports and researches on the specific projects.
- Reviewed previous findings for validation purposes.

Environmental Economist April 1990 – November 1993
Pace Consulting, Houston, Texas

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Participated in intra- and inter-agency talks and negotiations with trade groups.
- Provided in-depth analysis for international negotiations to serve as reference for decisions.
- Analyzed and evaluated international trade agreements and trade legislations.
- Conducted internal and external forums for information dissemination.
- Collated reports and documentations to support research analysis.

Agricultural Economist December 1993 – August 1992
Management Sciences for Health, Cambridge, MA

---

Education:

---

1986-1990 PHD in Economics
Harvard Business School, MA

1984-1986 Masters Degree in Economics
Princeton University, NJ
1980- 1984 Bachelors Degree in Economics
Princeton University, NJ

---

Skills:

---

- Creative and innovative
- Proven organizational and leadership skills
- Proficiency in MS Office application and other business programming software, ERP and CRM applications
- Superior interpersonal, presentation and communication skills
- Proven skills
- Critical Thinking skills

- Proven reliable judgment and decision-making skills

Awards and Affiliations:

---

Dean's Lister, Princeton University, NJ, 1990
Alumni Member, Princeton University, NJ

Build your Resume Now