

---

Educational Psychologist Resume

---

Job Objective

To serve people in need of psychological help by obtaining the position of Educational Psychologist within your esteemed organization.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Wide experience in providing educational psychological services
  - Profound knowledge of children behavior dynamics
  - Deep knowledge of psychological principles related to child education
  - Familiarity with curriculum and training development procedures
  - Huge knowledge of principles and methods for curriculum and training design
  - Ability to work with children of all ages
  - Ability to implement new instructional techniques based on children's interests
  - Ability to provide instructions to both individuals and groups
-

Professional Experience:

---

Educational Psychologist
Denver Public Schools, Loveland, OH
August 2007 – Present

- Provided counseling services to treat children learning problems.
- Worked with Teachers to develop Individualized Educational Plans (IEP).
- Assessed student's potential through interviews and observations.
- Referred students to other medical and social community agencies if needed.
- Implemented academic programs based on student needs and interests.
- Maintained complete records of student behavior, progress and educational data.
- Supported educational research programs to address student learning issues.
- Explained teachers and parents about teaching strategies and parenting skills.

Educational Psychologist
Florida Atlantic University, Loveland, OH
May 2004 – July 2007

- Conducted psychological tests for students and prepared test reports.
  - Informed parents and teachers about tests results and provided appropriate diagnosis.
  - Determined student's eligibility for special needs programs.
  - Coordinated with educational staffs to implement academic programs based on student's potential.
  - Provided counseling services to parents and teachers on behavior management techniques.
  - Reported appropriate authorities about child abuse and neglect.
  - Worked with Teachers to develop classroom management procedures.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Educational Psychology
American Graduate University, Covina, CA

Build your Resume Now