

ELECTRICAL POWER ENGINEER RESUME

Objective:

To be able to work in a friendly and globally competitive environment where I can contribute my 6+ years of experience in Electric Power Engineering and skills in project management and project engineering. My enthusiasm and my interest to do the job will be complementary in achieving organizational objectives.

Education:

Cornell University
BS Electrical Engineering, 2001

Skills:

- Experienced in project management and project engineering
- Excellent communication and organizational skills
- Experience in utility support system
- Expert in all phases of Electrical systems
- People management skills
- Results-oriented

Professional Experience:

- Electric Power Engineer II, 2006-Present
- Power Services, Atlanta

Responsibilities:

- Provided engineering assistance to Architects and Computer Operators to ensure that all data are documented, engineered, and processed in a timely manner.
- Compiled all documents and pertinent papers relative to detailed proposals and quotes.
- Ensured that all engineering processes comply with the XX Engine operating guidelines.
- Electric Power Engineer, 2004-2006
- Department of Energy, Atlanta

Responsibilities:

- Established safety standards for all areas of responsibility including field and special assignments.
- Participated in the lay outting of guidelines for construction, acquisition, procurement, and development of multiple projects.
- Checked and evaluated power engines to ensure that technical specifications are aligned with that of other power engines.
- Electrical Engineer, 2001-2003
- LTD International, Atlanta

Responsibilities:

- Provided engineering assistance to Architects and Computer Operators to ensure that all data are documented, engineered, and processed in a timely manner.
- Compiled all documents and pertinent papers relative to detailed proposals and quotes.
- Ensured that all engineering processes comply with the XX Engine operating guidelines.
- Electric Power Engineer, 2004-2006
- Department of Energy, Atlanta

Certifications and Affiliations:

Registered Professional Engineer
Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, member

