
Emergency Response Officer Resume

Job Objective

Qualified Emergency Response Officer seeking to fill position with established top-rate organization looking for applicants with extensive training and experience.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Solid knowledge of oil spill response activities and the USCG Incident Command System
 - Extensive knowledge of maritime security functions
 - Familiar with current Emergency Response Team tactics and procedures
 - Ability to react immediately to any critical situations with presence of mind
 - Ability to provide proof of a criminal and rug free record
-

Professional Experience:

Emergency Response Officer
Tulsa Health Dept, Phoenix, AZ
August 2005 – Present

- Leveraged company's emergency response resources in coordination with Emergency Response Team.
- Acted as team leaser for emergency preparedness.
- Provided training to Company's Crisis and Spill Management Teams.
- Initiated the development and implementation of company's security policy.
- Provided high tech Security and Emergency Response services to all departments across the company
- Actively involved in developing highly dynamic emergency response team.

Emergency Response Officer
Veolia, Phoenix, AZ
May 2000 – July 2005

- Provided security and law enforcement services for the people and properties in the assigned area.
 - Ensured security of facilities and infrastructure in the assigned area.
 - Maintained law and order of the region to ensure peace and tranquility.
 - Carried out routine and emergency surveillance and investigations.
 - Patrolled buildings and surroundings to identify threat elements.
 - Carried out detection of security breaches and enforced federal and state laws on such persons.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Organizational Management
Mayville State University, Mayville, ND

Build your Resume Now