
Emerging Technologies Librarian Resume

Job Objective

Want to work as Emerging Technologies Librarian and contribute towards the success and growth of your company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Relevant experience of research, assessment and implementation of emerging technologies for library
 - Thorough knowledge of digital library services, copyright laws, digital file formats and metadata standards
 - Operational knowledge of content management system and library information system
 - Familiarity with various web programming languages and databases
 - Ability to provide library instruction to patrons in using library technology and database
 - Ability to develop and maintain web-based podcasts, blogs and social networking tools
-

Professional Experience:

Emerging Technologies Librarian
East Georgia State College
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Identified, reviewed and utilized emerging technologies in library.
- Set up and maintained all software and other technology used for digital collection management.
- Created and maintained virtual reference tools and web portals.
- Trained and assisted staff and patrons in use of technology services, electronic resources and web tools.
- Supported and enhanced effectiveness of digital library services.
- Conducted and coordinated library instruction programs, outreach activities, and information literacy sessions.

Emerging Technologies Librarian
College of Southern Nevada
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Assessed, recommended and implemented various emerging technologies for use in Library's reference and instruction services.
 - Developed, promoted and provided virtual reference services, multimedia learning modules and online social interaction tools.
 - Prepared, maintained and updated library website and electronic content.
 - Trained and assisted staff and patrons in use of new library technologies and databases.
 - Detected, and resolved technical issues pertaining to library resources.
 - Developed and maintained positive relationships with patrons, staff and vendors.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Library & Information Science
Saint Ambrose University, Davenport, IA

Build your Resume Now