
EMS Training Officer Resume

Job Objective

EMS Training Officer seeking position with organization that has the potential for career growth possibilities.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Working experience in emergency management
 - Solid knowledge of paramedical education and training process
 - Familiar with Human Resources Standard Operating Procedures and policies
 - Proficient with all Federal laws and requirements for EMS personnel, services, and vehicles
 - Ability to enforce standard practices relevant to human resources
 - Ability to carry out assessment and review process in a human resource setting
 - Ability to pass comprehensive skill, knowledge, and instructor evaluation process
-

Professional Experience:

EMS Training Officer
Rural/Metro Corporation, Centennial, CO
August 2005 – Present

- Assumed responsibilities in the absence of the shift captain and performed relevant job functions.
- Participated in continuing education program to update on skills regarding emergency medical profession.
- Attended various educational and research programs pertaining to emergency medical services.
- Managed and coordinated shift, monthly, quarterly, and annual training
- Organized orientation programs for new employees, EMS students, and third riders.
- Demonstrated the ability to evaluate and document skill performance

EMS Training Officer
Grady Health System, Centennial, CO
May 2000 – July 2005

- Provided emergency care to patients in line with established medical standards.
 - Ensured assigned vehicles and equipment are in state of readiness.
 - Provided effective and safe transportation facility to patients.
 - Provided expertise and leadership to support medical emergency operation.
 - Managed and supported clients, physicians co-workers, vendors patients and visitors,.
 - Supervised training programs with clinical competency and leadership skills
-

Education:

High School Diploma
Steele Canyon High School, Spring Valley, CA

Build your Resume Now