

---

Energy Consultant Resume

---

Job Objective

To obtain an Energy Consultant position where I will get a chance to utilize my knowledge and experience.

---

Work Experience:

---

Energy Consultant, August 2005 – Present
Navigant Consulting, Inc., Dinuba, CA

- Created advanced manufacturing cost models for energy equipment designs.
- Researched and analyzed on energy-related activities.
- Analyzed gathered financial data and database.
- Interviewed business managers, technology experts and public policy officials.
- Assessed technologies and analyzed technology trends.
- Developed systematic plan for public utility, administration, power-plant companies and equipment suppliers.
- Prepared reports, presentations and other documents for clients.

Energy Consultant, May 2000 – July 2005
Itron, Dinuba, CA

- Conducted analytical studies on cost-effective energy programs.
  - Applied statistical methods including SAS programming, database applications to collect, analyze and present numerical data in spreadsheet form.
  - Assigned for collection, processing and analysis of large amounts of data to synthesize.
  - Interpreted results in prepared reports for strategic decision-making.
  - Managed project and task for broad range of Consulting and Analysis (C&A) projects.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Sound knowledge of energy efficiency, renewable energy, distributed generation and advanced technologies
  - Proficient in Visual Basic, SQL, Microsoft Excel and Access
  - Familiarity with mathematical and economic modeling techniques
  - Amazing ability to manage multiple time-sensitive priorities effectively
  - Remarkable ability to communicate technically about lighting, energy savings utilities and tax incentives
  - Outstanding analytical and problem-solving skills
  - Excellent verbal and written communication skills
  - Superior interpersonal skills
-

Education:

---

Bachelor Science in Mechanical Engineering, Jacksonville State University, Alabama, AL

Build your Resume Now