
ENERGY EFFICIENCY MANAGER RESUME

Summary:

An outstanding professional who has extensive experience in supervising and managing business energy efficiency programs and policy planning initiatives; has the ability to facilitate partnership between public and private groups in advocating for sustainable in-state energy practices; a key person who can serve as a resource for state policy makers, and to seek resources from government and non-profit entities to promote the state's business energy efficiency program planning and green technology development; has closely worked with government agencies and civil groups to promote the company's business objectives; has the ability to provide leadership in upgrading and enhancing services regarding marketing initiatives through the assistance of the planning and development department

Professional Experience:

Energy Efficiency Program Manager January 2007 – Present
Progress Energy, Dallas, TX

Responsibilities:

- Collaborated with technical and program personnel and other internal members to develop innovative energy programs.
- Consolidated input from program teams and created suggested program designs coming from
- a variety of sources from various department heads.
- Conferred with small groups to create best practices to provide energy savings, techniques and cost.
- Collaborated with program teams to prepare financial proposals, schedules and risk analysis.
- Trained senior programmers and program Managers on effective program designs.

Senior Energy Consultant May 2004 – December 2006
VT Energy Investment Corporation, Dallas, TX

Responsibilities:

- Identified the supporters on energy efficiency improvements in new construction and existing industrial, commercial, and residential buildings and facilities.
- Organized the developments and deliveries of market based services to penetrate the market for more business ventures.
- Demonstrated strengths in high degrees of independence in connection with customer relationship with accounts managed business customers and facility operators.
- Facilitated a wide range of analysis, including high level setting energy analyses, for report preparation.
- Updated on new solutions and knowledge in work to provide customers with new products and other upgrade opportunities.
- Acted as lead in identifying new products, techniques, and developing areas of specialized technical mastery.

Energy Efficiency Analyst February 1999 – May 2004
Portland Energy Conservation, Inc, Dallas, TX

Responsibilities:

- Collaborated with technical and program personnel and other internal members to develop innovative energy programs.
- Consolidated input from program teams and created suggested program designs coming from
- a variety of sources from various department heads.
- Conferred with small groups to create best practices to provide energy savings, techniques and cost.
- Collaborated with program teams to prepare financial proposals, schedules and risk analysis.
- Trained senior programmers and program Managers on effective program designs.

Senior Energy Consultant May 2004 – December 2006
VT Energy Investment Corporation, Dallas, TX

Education:

Masters Degree in Energy Management, University of Iowa, 1999
Business of Arts in Electrical Engineering, Rockefeller University, 1994

Skills:

- A thorough understanding of data center infrastructure or technology platforms
- Ability to perform energy savings calculations and spreadsheet analysis

- A high level of interest in improving energy efficiency in buildings
- Well developed presentation and written and oral communication skills
- Strong organizational skills
- Superior verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to multi-task and work in a fast paced environment
- Creativity and marketing skills

Awards and Affiliations:

Energy Efficiency Systems Group, Member
Corporate Council of the Project Management Institute, Member

Build your Resume Now