

---

ENTRY LEVEL ENGINEERING TECHNICIAN RESUME

---

Objective:

Seeking for engineering technician position, with a progressive organization, which will offer new challenges, and professional growth where my education, training and abilities will be fully and effectively utilized.

Skills:

- Ability to design, develop, test, manufacture, and repair electrical and electronic equipment.
- Sound knowledge of computer-aided design and drafting equipment.
- Strong knowledge of machines and tools.
- Experience in the association & certification of testing program.
- Uncommon ability to convert engineering principles into effective designs.
- Broad knowledge of microprocessors and digital electronics.
- Excellent customer service skills.
- Always keeps in touch with latest industry trends and technologies.

Education:

University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, March 2009
Associate Degree, major at Mechanical Engineering & Technology
Certification in Mechanics and digital conceptualization matters.
Trained in Electronic Drafting.

Professional Experience:

- Engineering Aide, from 2009 to till date
- Marlow Industries Inc., Chicago

Responsibilities:

- Reviewed and interpreted construction drawings and specifications.
- Undergone training on electrical & electronic equipment and electrical safety measures.
- Produced layouts and calculations of the products.
- Collect and organize information for both production cost analysis and marketing surveys.
- Tested and operated tools like engine lathes, drill presses and grinders.

Build your Resume Now