
EQUAL OPPORTUNITY ADVISER RESUME

Objective:

To become a valued asset with the organization using my experience as an Equal Opportunity Adviser.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience responding to questions regarding equal opportunity
 - Profound knowledge of the scope of relevant State and Federal human rights legislation
 - Familiarity with Equal Opportunity & Affirmative Action laws, regulations and principles
 - Sound knowledge of specialized conflict resolution and negotiation
 - Ability to sketch, organize and present material effectively
 - Ability to make effective recommendations and assist with the implementation of solution
-

Professional Experience:

Equal Opportunity Adviser, August 2005 – Present
Woodbury Financial Services Inc., Riverside, CA

- Provided program content and guidance to assigned units.
- Recommended commanding and investigating officers to perform research.
- Reviewed EO operations and practices.
- Identified program enhancement initiatives and worked with unit commanders to implement these initiatives.

Equal Opportunity Adviser, May 2000 – July 2005
CUSO Financial Services, Riverside, CA

- Processed complaints of inequity and molestation.
 - Acted as mediators who assisted CG personnel in resolving complaints at the lowest possible level.
 - Monitored ADR status and reported all complaint and mediation activity within the AOR.
 - Communicated and provided guidance to senior level commanders, program managers and unit level commanding officers.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Political Science, Capital University, Columbus, OH

Build your Resume Now