
Expressive Therapist Resume

Job Objective

A capable Expressive Therapist with extensive training and experience seeking a position within your organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Exceptional experience in implementing therapeutic programs for adults
 - Remarkable knowledge of mental health code
 - Deep knowledge of expressive therapy techniques
 - Immense ability to assist hospital staff in expressive therapy
 - Huge ability to maintain confidentiality
 - Ability to perform treatment planning, therapeutic groups
 - Good understanding of therapeutic programs for adults
-

Professional Experience:

Expressive Therapist
Foundations Behavioral Health, Upper Marlboro, MD
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Ensured compliance to hospital standards for all staff members.
 - Provided training to staff members for all training programs.
 - Assisted in promotion of various forms of expressive therapy.
 - Coordinated with clients on various issues of patients.
 - Designed service plans for difficult patient cases.
 - Managed and interpret all individual expression requirements.
 - Provided training to service group members.
 - Developed skill training programs for staff members.
-

Expressive Therapist
Sheppard Pratt Health System, Upper Marlboro, MD
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Maintained scheduled of expressive therapy materials.
 - Documented therapy assessments for clinical programs.
 - Administered therapies with required timeframe.
 - Ensured compliance to all medical orders for expressive therapy.
 - Organized all special areas for various activity therapies.
 - Managed all associate expressive equipments and supplies.
 - Developed a safe environment for all therapies.
 - Planned al recreation therapy for expressive activities.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Expressive Arts Therapy
Le Moyne College, Syracuse, NY
Bachelor's Degree in Expressive Therapy
Vernon College, Vernon, TX

Build your Resume Now