
FABRICATION ENGINEER RESUME

Job Objective:

Seeking full time Fabrication Engineer position with company in which my skills can be used to their fullest.

Professional Experience:

Fabrication Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Digital Prospectors, New Haven, CT

- Developed CAD drawings, layout and various other architectural and interior designs.
- Calculated all dimensions of area and then prepared drawing and layout accordingly.
- Developed steel design proposals for clients and informed clients about all project specifications.
- Performed regular inspections on interior designs and recorded all observations.
- Coordinated with other team members and ensured that all deadlines were met.
- Ensured that projects were completed within budget.

Fabrication Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Mit Lincoln Laboratory, New Haven, CT

- Evaluated all work orders and project plans.
 - Prepared daily and weekly schedule.
 - Coordinated with various departments and gathered information on all materials.
 - Ensured that all production materials were available and communicated to procurement department when needed.
 - Checked all drawings and ensured that all designs were followed and all corrective measures were taken in case of discrepancies.
 - Scheduled plant maintenance and prepared a maintenance plan and performed preventative and corrective maintenance.
 - Prepared daily production reports, identified all problems and resolved them.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in fabrication in a large scale manufacturing and processing environment
 - Familiarity with metal fabrication, forming, and joining processes
 - Proficiency in using precision measuring instruments – linear scales, tape measures, calipers, micrometers
 - Skilled in applying stock allowances for thickness, machine and welding
 - Huge knowledge of AutoCAD, Six Sigma, Lean and drawing solutions
 - Ability to lead a team and produce results
 - Excellent communication skills in both written and oral forms
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree In Civil Engineering, Wayne State College, Wayne, NE

Build your Resume Now