
Family Counselor Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a position as a Family Counselor to offer my immense experience and abilities.

Work Experience:

- Family Counselor, 2006 to Present
 - Marriage & Family Counseling Center, Lancaster, CA
 - Conducted couple and family therapy and family case seminars.
 - Provided direct counseling to individuals, couples, families and groups.
 - Counseled client issues such as interpersonal relationships, substance abuse, depression and anxiety.
 - Counseled dysfunctional family and related problems.
 - Modified people's behavior, improved communication and prevented individual and family crises.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Wide knowledge of psychotherapeutic and family systems theories and techniques
 - Immense ability to communicate information clearly, concisely and effectively
 - Wide knowledge of family therapy
 - Extended ability to gather information about clients using techniques such as interviewing, discussion and observation
 - Excellent ability to counsel on relationship issues, divorce, step families and parenting
-

Education:

B.S. in Psychology, 2004, University of Georgia M.S in Marriage and Family Therapy, 2006, Montana State University

Build your Resume Now