
Field Radio Operator Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a Field Radio Operator position and to contribute to the success and reputation of the company.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience working as a Field Radio Operator
 - Operational knowledge of broadcasting and telecoms
 - Good knowledge of electronic equipment and computer usage
 - Proficient with SHF, Satellite, VHF, HF and UHF radio systems
 - Skilled in operating equipment and systems
 - Excellent communication skills
 - Remarkable ability to interpret simple instructions
-

Work Experience:

Field Radio Operator, May 2004 – Present
URS Corporation, Rogers, MN

- Examined and tested equipment according to operation standards.
- Located and contacted missing airplanes and ships by coordinating via radio.
- Operated radio base dispatching unit to transmit information.
- Reviewed reports and entered into database systems.
- Posted data, cash payment and fee charges and other record keeping information by writing notations.

Field Radio Operator, March 2002– April 2004
AlliedBarton Security Services, Rogers, MN

- Supervised, installed, operated and performed preventive maintenance checks and services on amplitude modulation (AM) radios.
 - Received, recorded and processed messages to addressees and distribution sections.
 - Operated and maintained services on assigned vehicles.
 - Installed, operated and maintained power generators.
 - Directed the installation of radios and antennas.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Electronic and communications engineering, Southern Nazarene University, Oklahoma, OK

Build your Resume Now