

---

Field Worker Resume

---

Job Objective

Highly-qualified and experienced Field Worker seeking position with well-established company

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Huge knowledge of Self-government agreements
  - Familiarity with legislation, regulations, policies and procedures
  - Skilled at operating electric drills, metal cutters, walking power mower and leaf blower
  - Ability to lift up to 50 lbs and manage frequent bending and stair- climbing
  - Ability to use independent judgment and manage with varied people to operate two-way radio for communication
  - Superior problem-solving and crisis-management skills
  - Excellent team building, problem solving and decision making skills
-

Professional Experience:

---

Field Worker

CORA Health Services, Inc., Cedar Rapids, IA

February 2005 – Present

- Carried out animal care fieldwork and aided companion animal care and manage hurt animals.
- Conducted investigations and filed complaints with animal control organizations.
- Executed emergency first-aid processes and maintained paperwork.
- Received incoming calls for assistance and formulated case sheets.
- Aided cleaning Windsor animal shelters.

Field Worker

Miller & Milone, P.C., Cedar Rapids, IA

August 2000 – January 2005

- Imparted information about self-government.
  - Coordinated with Self-Government Office and distributed materials with regard to self-government.
  - Carried out community meetings and updated Senior Administrative Officer.
  - Arranged community events and made visits to community residents.
  - Executed community research and met community groups.
  - Conducted one-on-one meetings, labor market research and surveys.
  - Formulated reports with regard to research findings.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Human Services

Diablo Valley College, Pleasant Hill, CA

Build your Resume Now