
Financial Economist Resume

Job Objective

Financial Economist with high degree of dedication and skills seeking employment within a well established organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in collecting and preparing reports for financial documents
 - Exceptional knowledge of economic analysis techniques
 - Outstanding knowledge of various economic sources
 - Immense ability to coordinate with internal and external clients
 - Profound ability to develop appropriate economic procedures
 - Ability to communicate with all clients
 - Ability to complete projects independently
 - Ability to organize and analyze economic studies
 - Wide knowledge of microeconomic theory and its applications
 - Familiarity with quantitative methods for economic analysis
 - Solid understanding of principles and theories of economics
 - Proficient with SAS, Matlab, SQL and MS Office Suite
-

Professional Experience:

Financial Economist
UMB Financial Corporation, Hamilton, TX
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Analyzed expenditure and funding for federal programs.
- Monitored and studied effects in non appropriated funds programs.
- Managed Federal programs and recommends efficient economic policies and regulations.
- Supervised support data as per economic guidelines.
- Provided assistance to Federal government on banking, credits and investments.
- Developed proposals to facilitate changes in tax structure of country.
- Monitored tax plans and analyzed economic effects on financial sector.
- Prepared estimate for government revenues for various economic activities.

Financial Economist
Tybrin Corporation, Hamilton, TX
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Developed efficient state general fund cash flow models for financial market.
 - Ensured compliance to state fiscal management policies.
 - Prepared and analyzed economic implementation reports and recommended changes.
 - Developed reports for estimate of revenue measure as per legislature.
 - Monitored all revenue collection and expenditure for state general fund.
 - Developed revenue projections on short and long term basis.
 - Assisted in collection of economic and revenue data.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Financial Economics
Oregon Health & Science University, Portland, OR

Build your Resume Now