
FIRMWARE ENGINEER RESUME

Job Objective:

Seeking a long-term Firmware Engineer position in which my professional experiences and special qualifications will help encourage the growth of both my company and myself.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Admirable experience working as Firmware Engineer and developing embedded applications
 - Expertise in conducting software testing and validation
 - Deep understanding of the embedded firmware development
 - Operational knowledge of the network protocols and IPv6
 - Ability to multitask and prioritize work
 - Remarkable ability to design, code and test C/C++ program for the embedded control
 - Excellent communication skills
 - Skilled to work on embedded Linux applications
 - Proficient in working on Microsoft Windows and developed software
-

Work Experience:

Firmware Engineer, August 2005 – Present
GE Energy, Belleville, IL

- Designed individual programs and their specifications according to the need of the client.
- Scheduled the project and made adjustments to the application and tracked the progress.
- Performed reviews on the application and ensured that they were in accordance to the standards.
- Documented the procedures for software design and reviewed them.
- Designed and implemented the software test plans and ensured the software quality.
- Assisted the other teams and developed engineering tools.

Firmware Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
JacoB.S inon Staffing Inc, Belleville, IL

- Developed the functional specification for the software programs.
 - Scheduled the development tasks of the software.
 - Documented all requirements for the new product and provided an estimate for the same.
 - Tested the working of the algorithms in the new software applications.
 - Provided support to all SEC firmware products.
 - Researched on the computability of the new components and designs.
 - Maintained all the software engineering process.
-

Education:

Bachelor's of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering, Edgewood College, Madison, WI

Build your Resume Now