
Fishery Observer Resume

Job Objective

Highly-motivated Fishery Observer seeking position with company in which to put my experience to good use.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Highly experienced in delivering fishery-related observations and monitoring services
 - Sound knowledge of Knowledge of various fishery species and government regulations related to fisheries
 - Immense knowledge of biological sampling, environmental monitoring and commercial fisheries practices
 - Familiarity with firefighting, sea survival, and first aid treatment procedures
 - Ability to fish related species identification books and keys, efficiently
 - Ability to operate computer and sampling instruments, in a proper manner
-

Professional Experience:

Fishery Observer
Ecology and Environment, Inc., Baltimore, MD
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Observed and estimated fishery catch composition and disposition, properly.
- Examined and documented intakes of protected fish species and fishery discards.
- Conducted and coordinated biological sampling and environmental monitoring activities.
- Checked and ensured compliance of fishing activities with established fishery regulations.
- Gathered and analyzed all data on costs related with fishing operations.
- Obtained and maintained accurate information related to vessel and equipment performance.

Fishery Observer
Earth Resources Technology, Inc, Baltimore, MD
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Measured and calculated amounts and species composition of fish caught, discarded, and retained.
 - Utilized effective biological sampling techniques and collected various fish samples from fishery catch.
 - Collected, reviewed, and maintained data pertaining to fishing gear and equipments.
 - Watched and monitored all fishing operations, onboard commercial fishing vessels.
 - Prepared, maintained, and retrieved work-related records, using computer
 - Tracked and maintained the stock level of all needed equipments and supplies.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Marine Science
Miles College, Fairfield, AL

Build your Resume Now