
Flight Respiratory Therapist Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a Flight Respiratory Therapist position in which I can enhance my skills and contribute to the growth of the organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in providing flight respiratory care services
 - Sound knowledge of air life treatment protocols
 - Huge knowledge of respiratory therapeutic techniques
 - Skilled in operation and maintenance of flight medical equipment
 - Familiarity with flight safety procedures
 - Amazing ability to make critical decisions in stressful situations
 - Immense ability to perform basic troubleshooting of flight medical equipment
 - Uncommon ability to work with children and adults
 - Ability to monitor patient's physiological responses to therapy
-

Professional Experience:

Flight Respiratory Therapist
Hartford Health Care Corporation, San Jose, CA
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Assisted Flight Nurse in treating injured patients.
- Provided emergency treatments to acutely ill patients according to air life guidelines.
- Reported medical equipment repairs to Manager promptly.
- Maintained inventory control of medical supplies.
- Performed intubation when needed.
- Monitored the delivery of Nitric Oxide.
- Participated in Air Life projects.

Flight Respiratory Therapist
Florida Hospital Careers, San Jose, CA
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Reviewed patient's health history.
 - Monitored patient's responses to therapy sessions.
 - Analyzed arterial blood gases.
 - Reported Physician of any adverse reactions.
 - Assisted code team in emergency care services.
 - Ensured that respiratory therapy equipment is in good working condition.
 - Cleaned and maintained equipment according to department policy.
 - Maintained patient's medical records.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Respiratory Therapy
East Central College, Union, MO
Bachelor's Degree in Respiratory Therapy
Tougaloo College, Tougaloo, MS

Build your Resume Now