
Food Process Engineer Resume

Job Objective

Inspiring Food Process Engineer seeking career with a seasoned company looking for loyal employees dedicated to the job.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience working as a Food Process Engineer in an production facility
 - Sound knowledge of proteins, lipid functionality and product forms
 - Exceptional knowledge of the food process and packaging
 - Remarkable ability to discover new ingredients and use the old ones in an innovative way
 - Outstanding ability to design test procedures
 - Skilled to resolve all technical problems
 - Astounding skills to ensure best practices in the procedure
 - Proficient in understanding all the key processes such as mixing and hydration
 - Profound understanding of the food engineering principles
-

Work Experience:

Food Process Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Taylor Corporation, Boynton Beach, FL

- Designed a detailed plan for the layout process and the related equipment.
- Facilitated the production process, scheduled the process and observed the manufacturing process.
- Developed test tools for the machinery and process and recommended the necessary changes.
- Analyzed the test data, developed ways to reduce the cost and improve product quality.
- Designed the entire manufacturing process such as the production flow, the assembly methods and the equipments required.
- Coordinated with the various departments and upgraded the equipment in the facility.
- Ensured that all Safety measures were adopted in the facility.

Food Process Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Rembrandt Enterprises, Boynton Beach, FL

- Initiated the business plan, drafted plans and objectives for the same.
 - Analyzed the results of the test and recommended actions to improve the efficiency.
 - Coordinated with various teams and provided them technical help.
 - Supervised the work of the junior members in the team.
-

Education:

B.S in Food Engineering ,Glenville State College, Glenville, WVM.S in Food Engineering, Hazard Community & Technical College, Hazard, KY

Build your Resume Now