
Food Scientist Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a job as Food Scientist and perform my duties with full dedication.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience in food product research, development and sensory evaluation
 - Immense knowledge of food science concepts, laboratory procedures, and food handling, storage and production
 - Extensive knowledge of food ingredients, chemical composition, recipes GMP and QA activities
 - Familiarity with AIB, HACCP, USDA and FDA health and food safety regulations
 - Ability to formulate and promote grain based ingredients and foods
 - Ability to use computer, Windows OS and MS Office software
-

Professional Experience:

Food Scientist
Pinnacle Foods Inc., Rochelle Park, NJ
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Prepared, maintained and improved product formulations, specifications and mixing instructions.
- Tested and modified ingredients, product samples and food processing techniques.
- Prepared and maintained project status reports, ingredient statements, and QA records.
- Used and maintained all QA lab equipments for food testing, efficiently.
- Participated in focus groups and sensory evaluations and attended Process Safety meetings.
- Obtained and maintained information about latest trends in food industry.

Food Scientist
Rich Products Corporation, Rochelle Park, NJ
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Developed, evaluated and optimized food ingredient, formula, product, and development process.
 - Tested and modified food ingredients and final products, in an efficient manner.
 - Developed and documented specifications and standards for food ingredients and products.
 - Developed and maintained positive professional relationships with industry peers, clients, vendors, and auditors.
 - Documented, analyzed and presented accurate test results and project reports.
 - Directed and managed assigned team of junior staff personnel, as required.
-

Education:

PhD in Food Science
California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, CA

Build your Resume Now