

---

FORGING MACHINE OPERATOR RESUME

---

Summary:

---

A highly analytical individual with proven ability and track record in the area of quality assurance, fabrication, modification and design remodeling; has vast experience in conducting tests and inspections of products and services; can effectively and accurately evaluate quality or performance of a product or equipment; has an in-depth understanding of the current system and upgrades which could affect both current and future problem-solving and decision-making; can accurately determine and diagnose problems by performing routine maintenance checks on equipment and process automation machineries; quick-witted and capable of Using logic and reasoning in the identification of strengths and weaknesses of current and alternative solutions.

---

Professional Experience:

---

Forging Machine Operator February 2006 – Present
Rockford Drop Forge & Machine Company, Rockford, Illinois

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Observed and obtained information from all relevant sources.
- Responsible to handling and moving objects for installation, positioning and manipulating things.

Forge Press Operator May 2004 – January 2006
Lefere Forge and Machine Company, Jackson, Michigan

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Responsible for setting up, and operating forging machines to taper, shape, or form metal plastic parts.
- Performed minor maintenance on machines.
- Worked with audit/quality control personnel to identify quality problems.
- Adjusted machinery during changeover.
- Worked with Tool room on die quality problems.
- Performed other task and responsibilities, as needed or assigned.

Forgesmith February 2002 – May 2004
The National Machinery, Tiffin, Ohio

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Observed and obtained information from all relevant sources.
- Responsible to handling and moving objects for installation, positioning and manipulating things.

Forge Press Operator May 2004 – January 2006
Lefere Forge and Machine Company, Jackson, Michigan

---

Education:

---

1998 – 2002 Associate in Engineering Technology
University of Minnesota, MN

---

Skills:

---

- Proficiency in MS Office Word, Excel, PowerPoint
  - Capable of operating office equipment such as fax machines, shredders, scanners, photocopiers and telephone systems
  - Vast knowledge in machinery
  - Above-average communication and interpersonal skills
  - Good organizational and time management skills
  - Quality Control Analysis skills
  - Training, operations and control of fabrication, cutting and design equipment
  - Critical Thinking skills
  - Proven reliable judgment and decision-making skills
-

Awards and Affiliations:

---

National Tooling & Machining Association, Member

Build your Resume Now