
Fundraising Consultant Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a Fundraising Consultant position where I can apply my experience and efficiently contribute to the company's growth.

Work Experience:

Fundraising Consultant, August 2005 – Present
Amaron, Gilbert, AZ

- Worked with team members to identify obtainable fundraising sources in the country.
- Researched and categorized potential donors and developed a database or map.
- Updated range of donors potentially interested in funding work.
- Identified other funding opportunities in corporate houses, trusts, funding agencies and individuals.
- Provided recommendations for next steps in approaching special sources of funding.
- Identified possible fundraising prospects as per project requirement.

Fundraising Consultant, May 2000 – July 2005
Nippo, Inc., Gilbert, AZ

- Worked with team members to create fundraising tactics.
 - Established a mapping of organizations, government agencies and business sector clients.
 - Developed institutional capacity for fundraising and the fundraising talent of individuals across the national societies.
 - Supported and guided country and regional fundraising association with international strategy.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Great experience in fundraising and preparing proposals and grant applications for funding
 - Sound knowledge of fundraising cycles, proposal formats and application procedures for donors
 - Skilled in developing and implementing fundraising campaigns, foundation and individual donor cultivation
 - Good knowledge of project cycle management
 - Profoundly able to listen and comprehend complex instructions
 - High level of personal presentation skills
 - Excellent interpersonal, written and verbal skills
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, Grove City College, Grove City, PA
Master of Business Administration, Eastern Illinois University, Illinois, IL

Build your Resume Now