
GE Field Engineer Resume

Job Objective

Actively seeking employment opportunities that allow me to use my skills as a GE Field Engineer for the good of the company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Good experience working as a Field Engineer and installing electronic equipments
 - Profound knowledge of installation of Turbine systems
 - Ability to identify malfunction on mechanical and electronic equipments
 - Sound knowledge of electrical safety requirements and National Electrical Code
 - Exceptional ability to sell electronics products to the customers
 - Skilled to respond to all the customer problems
 - Good communication and leadership skills
 - Proficient in coordinating with the internal team and customers to resolve problems
-

Professional Experience:

Field Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Cybercoders, Calipatria, CA

- Maintained and performed installation at the site for the systems and the associated equipments.
- Handled all emergency requests and ensured that the emergency repairs were carried on time.
- Provided training to the customer care representatives on the various processes.
- Performed all administrative functions and prepared technical and status reports for the job carried.
- Ensured that all the work done was in accordance with the GE Safety Standards.
- Inspected the equipments and performed troubleshoot on the equipment as a part of routine maintenance.
- Documented all technical reports for the customer records.

Field Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Becton Dickinson, Calipatria, CA

- Performed troubleshoot and installed various equipments.
 - Managed the equipments and estimated the life cycle of the parts and repaired them accordingly.
 - Maintained the customer logs and ensured that the services were performed within the required timeframe.
 - Ensured that the customers were satisfied with services rendered by the organization.
 - Performed all the maintenance of equipment in accordance to the Human Services, Health and Safety requirements.
 - Coordinated with the local team and ensured that efficient service was provided to the customers of that area.
 - Monitored all contract renewals and implemented ways to generate revenue for the organization.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Electrical Engineering, Christopher Newport University, Newport News, VA

Build your Resume Now