
Geological Engineer Resume

Job Objective

Seeking an opportunity to utilize my skills as a Geological Engineer to contribute to the growth of the organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide geoscience experience in conventional and unconventional environment
 - Outstanding knowledge of structural geology and tectonic settings
 - Ability to communicate in both written and oral forms
 - Ability to integrate subsurface, production, and geophysical data into cohesive prospect development
 - Skilled at data integration and regional map compilation from disparate data sets
 - Proficient with UNIX, Landmark Interpretation suite, and 3D Visualization tools
 - Familiarity with data analysis, geotechnical analysis, design and drafting
-

Professional Experience:

Geological Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Sequence Systems, Newark, NJ

- Evaluated site for project and checked all aspect of area such as soil and ground water levels.
- Conducted site investigations for complex and large construction projects such as tunnels, bridges and dams.
- Developed various measures and resolved all land contamination levels.
- Designed structures to be made from rocks such as tunnels and basements.
- Generated databases and prepared designs accordingly.
- Determined ways to control instable areas such as landslides.
- Coordinated with various teams and carried out necessary researches.

Geological Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
EOG Resources, Newark, NJ

- Provided support to all civil and environmental projects such as investigating soils and making necessary tests on environment.
 - Developed all laboratory test programs for environmental site inspections.
 - Documented all remedial investigation and maintained a record of all studies carried and designs reports.
 - Prepared an estimate cost of project and prepared related drawings.
 - Designed disposal facilities and development of landfill capping.
 - Provided technical support to all exploration work and handled all production activities.
 - Coordinated with various operating groups and analyzed problems and suggested appropriate solutions.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree In Geological Engineering, Hondros College, Westerville, OH

Build your Resume Now