
GIS Programmer Resume

Job Objective

Seeking a GIS Programmer position in a company where my Programming skills and knowledge can be used and enhanced to the fullest.

Work Experience:

GIS Programmer, August 2005 – Present
ESRI Professional Services, Belmont, VT

- Worked effectively with the Technical Lead on multi-million dollar projects related to software solutions.
- Coordinated with the technical team to deliver on-time requirements to customers.
- Worked in a team environment focused on delivering quality COTS.
- Reviewed COTS solution design and progress documents.

GIS Programmer, May 2000 – July 2005
GeoSearch, Inc., Belmont, VT

- Reported to the Director of GIS Research Services at the Center for Geographic Analysis (CGA) and with guidance from the CGA Director and Faculty Steering Committee.
 - Designed, developed, implemented and maintained GIS software platforms at CGA.
 - Guided researchers in the correct way to select and use appropriate GIS software platforms and technologies.
 - Explored new technologies and introduced them to the Harvard GIS community.
 - Provided support for GIS courses.
 - Supported the GIS lab and help desk at CGIS.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience in the development of GIS related functional requirements and systems development
 - Deep knowledge of programming in an ESRI software environment
 - Operational knowledge of a high level language such as C++ C#, Java, COM and VB.NET
 - Proficient in JavaScript, Oracle 9i/10g (Spatial), SQL Server, MySQL and Access
 - In-depth knowledge in programming tools: VS 2005, MS Visio, UML, HTML, XML
 - Excellent written and oral communication skills
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in GIS, Colorado Technical University, Colorado, CO

Build your Resume Now