
GIS Technician Resume

Job Objective

To become a part of your team and serve as GIS Technician.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Extensive experience of developing, maintaining, and managing GIS products and drawings
 - Sound knowledge of data mapping, spatial analysis, and validation techniques and methods
 - Commendable knowledge of ArcInfo, AutoCad, MicroStation, and ArcMap software applications
 - Familiarity with general engineering concepts and surveying practices
 - Ability to operate and maintain GIS equipments and devices, efficiently
 - Ability to prepare maps and drawings in accordance with engineering standards
-

Professional Experience:

GIS Technician
GeoSearch, Inc., Norcross, GA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Analyzed and interpreted all given construction data and sketches, properly.
- Used AutoCAD and Microstation software and produced technical maps and drawings.
- Used stationing and offset data and employed proper scaling techniques.
- Created and maintained the drawing and design standards, as required.
- Recorded, checked, and updated all engineering records in computer database system.
- Established and maintained cooperative relationships with designers and engineers.

GIS Technician
Pike Electric, Inc., Norcross, GA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Developed, implemented, and maintained the GIS procedures, in an effective manner.
 - Designed, documented, and evaluated GIS models and mapping products
 - Conducted and interpreted GIS-based data analysis, using computer system.
 - Organized and maintained all data records, maps, and technical drawings, properly.
 - Monitored and maintained the accuracy and security of GIS-related data.
 - Created and delivered training materials and presentations to all assigned users.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Geography
Friends University, Wichita, KS

Build your Resume Now