
Hand Therapist Resume

Job Objective

A capable Hand Therapist with extensive training and experience seeking a position within your organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Huge experience in providing hand therapeutic services in acute care setting
 - Sound knowledge of occupational therapy practices
 - Operational knowledge of therapy equipment
 - Skilled in patient care policies
 - Familiarity with safety precautions
 - Immense ability to maintain patient records
 - Ability to schedule patient appointments
 - Amazing ability to develop medical quality control standards
 - Remarkable ability to handle patient appointments
 - Ability to documents patient care services
-

Professional Experience:

Hand Therapist
Millbrook Physical Therapy, Omaha, NE
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Reviewed patient's past medical history to identify their problems.
- Developed hand therapy programs to meet patient's needs.
- Educated patients on home exercise programs.
- Evaluated patient's response to therapy sessions.
- Communicated with other medical staffs to provide optimal patient care.
- Reported department needs to Administrator.
- Worked in compliance with corporate policies.
- Maintained professional appearance and standards at all times.

Hand Therapist
BenchMark Physical Therapy, Omaha, NE
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Provided rehabilitation to patients with hand disabilities.
 - Modified therapy programs based on patient's physical capacity.
 - Monitored and recorded patient's progress.
 - Maintained confidentiality of all patient information.
 - Coordinated with Physicians to plan discharge activities.
 - Maintained the working environment safe and clean.
 - Participated in educational workshops for professional development.
 - Provided service training to therapy staffs.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Occupational Therapy
Seattle University, Seattle, WA

Build your Resume Now