
Head Nurse Resume

Job Objective

To allow the usage of years of skills that I bring as a Head Nurse and to help increase the positive track record of the hospital.

Professional Experience:

Head Nurse, August 2005 – Present

Glendale Adventist Medical Center, Burr Ridge, IL

- Provided leadership of care to patients on unit directly and through delegation and supervision of staff.
- Collaborated with Nursing Director, Physicians, and staff in the development and provision of clinical services.
- Ensured that all patients on unit receive cost effective, professional care that results in positive outcomes.
- Conducted daily rounds with physicians and staff to ensure appropriate care.
- Participated actively in Periodic Performance Review and Nursing Department's.
- Implemented performance improvement plan.

Head Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005

Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital, Burr Ridge, IL

- Planned, coordinated, and evaluated patient services in department.
 - Delegated duties to the staff of unit.
 - Educated staff and patients on health care.
 - Established and maintained positive relationships with patients and customers.
 - Adhered to the mission of the hospital and its values.
 - Supervised, mentored and counseled nursing staff.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Strong accomplished experience in clinical and administrative nursing leadership
 - Outstanding knowledge of health screenings and physical assessment and immunizations update
 - Ability to diagnosed patient conditions and interpreting findings from examination and diagnostic tests
 - Ability to demonstrate professional demeanor when responding to patients and customers
 - Excellent organizational and relationship management skills
 - Superior leadership and management skills
-

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Health Services Management, Santiago Canyon College, Orange, CA

Build your Resume Now