
Health Consultant Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a Health Consultant position and to contribute to the success and reputation of the company.

Areas of Excellence:

- Remarkable experience managing within business intelligence toolsets
 - Proficient with MS Office Applications
 - Ability to work with health professionals in an array of activities
 - Ability to conduct and interpret qualitative and quantitative analysis
 - Ability to navigate among economic, clinical, research and technical disciplines
 - Ability to provide quick and accurate clinical assessments
 - Ability to design culturally-appropriate behavioral health interventions
 - Superior communication skills
-

Professional Experience:

Health Consultant

DR&V, Tulare, CA, August 2005 – Present

- Outlined and enforced health care programs.
- Established criteria and carried out on-site reviews.
- Imparted technical assistance to state and local program administrators.
- Developed and interpreted policies.
- Conducted meets with public and private organizations.

Health Consultant

Veta Inc., Tulare, CA, May 2000 – July 2005

- Established criteria for analysis of state and local health program services.
 - Outlined and enforced health education and training programs.
 - Formulated educational materials, newsletters and reports.
 - Outlined requests for proposals and program agreements.
 - Maintained records and formulated reports.
-

Education:

Associates Degree in Health Science's

Kapiolani Community College, Honolulu, HI

Build your Resume Now