
Health Economist Resume

Job Objective

Health Economist with strong knowledge of market trends, policies and activities seeking employment in a reputed organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in administering federal contracts for health economics
 - Deep knowledge of medical affairs and pharmaceutical industries
 - Huge knowledge of public and private sector reimbursement
 - Outstanding ability to multi task and prioritize work
 - Immense ability to develop sequence of all plans
 - Good understanding of health economics, epidemiology pricing & reimbursement
 - Ability to coordinate with multi cultural teams
 - Ability to administer overall drug development
 - Ability to assess the impact of health interventions
 - Familiarity with economic and financial modeling
-

Professional Experience:

Health Economist
Optimal Solutions Group, LLC, Chicago, IL
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Monitored projects and applied all economic and scientific theories.
- Provided assistance to complete various scientific papers.
- Developed proposals for funding of studies for various health projects.
- Ensured compliance to methodological and technological processes.
- Performed regular analysis of data and prepared appropriate policies.
- Analyzed applied economic policies and recommended changes in policies.
- Implemented all operational programs and allocated various resources.

Health Economist
Capstone Corporation, Chicago, IL
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Administered multiple projects and prioritized complex projects.
 - Developed health research projects and estimated timeframe and budgets.
 - Designed and implemented outcome of all research studies.
 - Coordinated with academic consultants and researchers for organizational studies.
 - Implemented medical plans for post marketing research activities.
 - Monitored outcomes of all research activities.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Health Economics
Middlesex County College, Edison, NJ

Build your Resume Now