
Healthcare Business Analyst Resume

Job Objective

Healthcare Business Analyst position in a reputed firm.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Ability to design, build, and implement business solutions
 - Ability to facilitate large business requirements sessions,
 - Ability to translate business processes into functional requirements
 - Extensive knowledge of hospital administrative data
 - Wide knowledge of clinical and financial aspects of patient management
 - In-depth knowledge of the patient care setting and clinical practice
-

Professional Experience:

Healthcare Business Analyst
Beacon Health Strategies, LLC, Colorado Springs, CO
August 2005 – Present

- Manned to weekly archive all inactive accounts.
- Produced and maintained all facility reports.
- Created, maintained user log-ons including password resets and employee termination protocols.
- Located and reproduced routine reports that failed to generate and distribute.
- Interacted with sites Internal and External auditors during the audit process.
- Classified problems as system, training, process and recommended corrections.

Sales Analyst
TEKsystems, Colorado Springs, CO
May 2000 – July 2005

- Reviewed programming requests and worked effectively with business users and technical staff.
 - Articulated and presented business analysis results clearly and concisely to programming staff.
 - Developed and prepared requirements tractability matrix to be used in software development and QA testing.
 - Identified required information fields and developed data dictionary.
 - Participated effectively in systems development efforts.
 - Tested, accepted testing and implementation of information systems, modules and subsystems.
-

Education:

Bachelors Degree in Healthcare Administration
University of California, Berkeley, CA

Build your Resume Now