

---

Heavy Construction Surveyor Resume

---

Job Objective

Highly motivated and experienced individual seeking to fill the position of Heavy Construction Surveyor in your company.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Strong experience in surveying construction activities for heavy highway sector
  - Thorough knowledge of total stations and robotic stations
  - Outstanding knowledge of surveying techniques and equipment standards
  - Exceptional knowledge of safety and OSHA regulations
  - Wide knowledge of INDOT, Federal, State and local industry-related specifications
  - Proficient with AutoCAD, Robotic Stations, Total Stations, Carlson Software and Trimble Business Center
  - Ability to interpret blueprints and develop built
  - Ability to communicate with various clients and team members
  - Ability to monitor civil projects and maintain efficiency
-

Professional Experience:

Heavy Construction Surveyor
Balfour Beatty Construction, Atlanta, GA
August 2007 – Present

- Coordinated with contractors and provided appropriate technical engineering information.
  - Prepared labor cost reports and ensured accuracy in ledgers.
  - Established appropriate timeframe and quantities required to complete project.
  - Inspected fields on regular basis in coordination with consultants as per contracts.
  - Monitored all installation activities and ensured compliance to structural drawings.
  - Provided assistance to project superintendent and performed all quality control processes.
  - Evaluated all shop drawings and ensured compliance to contract briefings.
  - Analyzed and identified any conflict in contracts and recommended appropriate solutions.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering
Antelope Valley College, Lancaster, CA

Build your Resume Now